Giving and Receiving Compliments

Name: _____

Date: _____

Choose the best compliment to give for each situation.

1. Your classmate helped solve a tough math problem.

"Thanks for the help, you're so good at math!"

"Why are you always so smart?"

"Your English is bad, but your math is great!"

2. Your friend scored a goal in soccer.

"You're lucky you scored that goal."

"Nice goal! Your practice has paid off!"

"Why don't you ever pass the ball?"

3. Your teacher created a fun science experiment.

"That experiment was so boring."

"Your experiment was so fun and creative!"

"Do you always make science so easy?"

Choose the best way to respond to these compliments.

1. "You're really good at drawing!"

"I'm not that good."

"Thanks! I've been practicing a lot."

"You're just saying that."

2. "That was a great presentation!"

"It was okay, I guess."

"Thanks! I worked hard on it."

"I think it could have been better."

3. "I love your new haircut!"

"Thanks! I really like it too."

"Oh, it's nothing special."

"I just did it because I had to."
