

Social Skills Worksheet

Listening Skills

Color the good listening skills green. Color the poor listening skills red.

Making eye contact while someone speaks.

Looking away or playing with a toy.

Looking bored or rolling your eyes.

Interrupting when someone is talking.

Nodding your head to show you understand.

Asking a question about what was said.

Smiling or using a friendly expression.

Talking while the other person is speaking.

Turning your body toward the speaker.

Ask your teacher or a friends to read the following short story. Listen carefully . Afterward, answer the questions.

“Liam and his dad went to the park on Saturday. Liam brought his kite because it was windy, and they flew it high into the sky. After flying the kite, they stopped for ice cream before heading home.”

What did Liam bring to the park?
Why was it a good day to fly the kite?
What did Liam and his dad do after flying the kite?
What would you have done if you went to the park?	